

Tracy Jones FPRIA FAMI CPM MIPRA MAICD
Managing Director

With four national and 12 state awards for public relations, Tracy is the Territory's most awarded communication professional. She began Creative Territory in March 2006 after 25 years in journalism and public relations.

Her knowledge of the Territory, its culture and the psyche of its residents has helped her to deliver numerous strategies and campaigns that truly resonate with Territorians. She has an intimate knowledge of the challenges of communicating in and across the Territory as well as experience running national and international campaigns.

In the NT Government Tracy worked in senior executive roles in communication and marketing, leading numerous high-profile cross-government projects. She headed up the central government communications unit under both Labor and CLP governments.

Tracy is a Fellow of both the Public Relations Institute of Australia and the Australian Marketing Institute, a Member of the International Public Relations Association and a Certified Practising Marketer.

She is the national President of the Public Relations Institute of Australia and a member of the Northern Territory Government Procurement Council.
